Join media researcher and Professor of Journalism at Wilfrid Laurier University, Dr. David Millard Haskell, as he discusses how and why mainstream reporters have abandoned objectivity to push an ideological agenda. Applying the most current empirical evidence, Dr. Haskell will show how our country’s elite journalists have misinformed the public on major issues ranging from the pandemic to racism. Guests will have opportunities throughout the evening to converse about the topics introduced by Dr. Haskell with those sitting around their table. Dinner included.
